What was done

This sprint delivered the full content set for Halden & Co.'s September launch. I researched the category landscape, structured each piece around the launch message, drafted the output, and ran two full revision rounds against your brand voice. Parts were produced with AI-assisted tooling; every line below was reviewed and edited by me before delivery.

Deliverables

Deliverable	Human work	AI-assisted	Status
Blog: "The 4 costs your quoting tool hides"	Outline, edits, final pass	Draft, research	Delivered
Email sequence (announce, open, recover)	Voice & tone rewrite, CTA	Drafts, subject lines	Delivered
Landing page copy	Structure, headline, final pass	Section drafts	Delivered
